UPDATE: PROJECT CEASEFIRE

KC FELON SENTENCED FOR ILLEGAL POSSESSION OF FIREARM

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Todd P. Graves, United States Attorney for the Western District of Missouri, announced that a Kansas City, Mo., man was sentenced in federal court today for being a felon in possession of a firearm. Today's sentencing is part of Project Ceasefire, the district's ongoing anti-crime initiative.

Frank Robinson, 38, of Kansas City, was sentenced by U.S. District Judge Nanette K. Laughrey this afternoon to seven years in federal prison without parole.

On Oct. 23, 2003, Robinson pleaded guilty to being a felon in possession of a firearm. By pleading guilty, he admitted that he was in possession of a Sturm Ruger 9 mm semi-automatic pistol on May 31, 2002. Under federal law, Graves explained, it is illegal for any felon to be in possession of any firearm or ammunition. Robinson has a 1988 criminal felony conviction for stealing from a person.

Robinson was originally charged in an indictment returned by a federal grand jury on Feb. 26, 2003, in Kansas City.

This case was prosecuted by Assistant U.S. Attorney David A. Barnes. It was investigated by the Kansas City, Mo., Police Department and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives.

Project Ceasefire

Project Ceasefire, launched in October 1999, is a cooperative initiative by federal and local law enforcement and the Kansas City Crime Commission that targets for federal prosecution persons who unlawfully use or possess firearms.
